San Francisco Transportation Tour
10 am Sunday February 17th

Begin with a ride on a historic streetcar, from Fisherman's Wharf, along the Embarcadero, then up Market Street, along the Church Street Line to the Geneva Car Barns. Here we will tour the paint shop and learn about the rich history of San Francisco's Municipal Railway. We hope to be joined by Nathaniel Ford, Muni chief for our tour. We will then continue on an LRV (light rail vehicle) to Powell and Market Streets, where we will transfer to a cable car for a ride to the Cable Car Barn. We will see here just what makes the cable cars run, and tour the Cable Car Museum. Then it's back onto a cable car for the ride on the Fisherman's Wharf and the close of the Classic Car Show.

Farewell Gathering – The Grand Finale
